

Sutton Poyntz Biodiversity Group

We will be holding a number of sessions this summer for people to learn about the bats in the village.

The first will be about the different species we have found and an introduction to using simple hand held detectors.

Meet Colin and Dave in the Waterworks on Wednesday 15th June at 9:30 for about 1 hour.

In the event of heavy rain we will reschedule to another evening.